FOR THOSE WHO MOURN

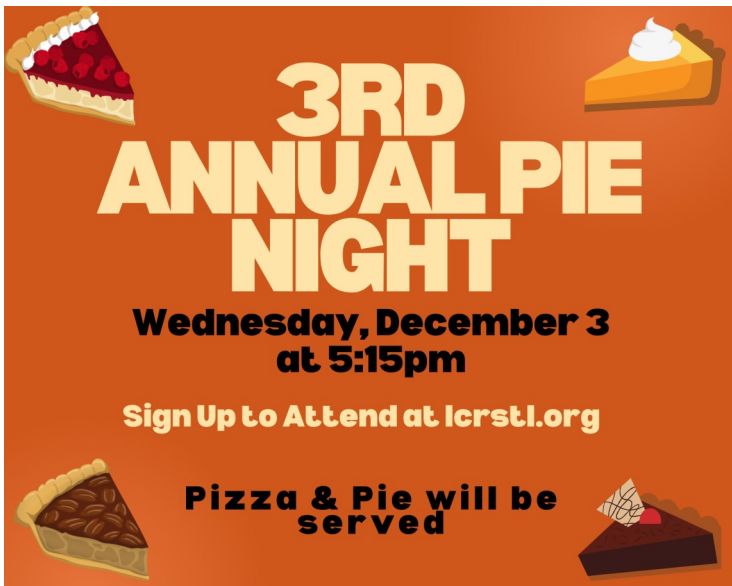

Family and friends of Arlene Jackson who died in Christ Jesus on November 3

Deaconess Britt Baumgartner was born in the Philippines (military parents) and grew up in small town Iowa. She received her Bachelor of Science in Psychology from Excelsior College, and her Master of Arts in Deaconess Studies from Concordia Theological Seminary. She's previously served as Director of Development & Communications, Director of Family Life Ministries, Servant Event Coordinator, and in other ministry leadership roles.

Britt is wife of husband, Rev. James and mom to Eleanor (15). Their family's love of Jesus and neighbor has taken them to many unique places – serving as international missionaries in Asia and Latin America, and recently moving to St Louis from Alaska. Deaconess Britt has recently come on board at Resurrection as Coordinator of Discipleship and Volunteer Ministries. She's looking forward to serving alongside all members of LCR and seeing how the Lord will continue to bless the congregation.

Britt would like to invite you to reach out if you're interested in volunteering, discipleship, or youth. Her first event is Cookies and Cocoa on Friday, December 3rd. If you're looking for a way to serve, this is a great opportunity!

We can face competing priorities when we think about estate planning. One big decision to make is whether this is merely a legal/financial activity or is it an activity of faith. Your will can include a Christian preamble, a statement of faith captured in permanent record, meant to give confession of your faith and encouragement for beneficiaries of your estate. Your LCMS Foundation Gift Planning Counselor has samples to share with you to get you started. Contact Erich Faulstich 314-779-6494
