TODAY | TOMORROW | FOREVER

When creating a Christian estate plan, we need good advisors to assist to ensure our plan is well thought out. It may very well be that part of your planning has included insurance. Those needs often change during different eras of life. Past insurance plans to guard against potential disasters might now provide great inheritance opportunities for family, or even a charitable gift. Your LCMS Foundation Gift Planning Counselor can assist you in conversations with your insurance representative to make sure your policies are coordinated in your plans.
